The Chief Court directs that the following alterations be made in the Rules dated the 25th September 1905 issued for the purpose of regulating the practice of the Chief Court: —

For paras 32 to 42 the following shall be substituted :—

(f) Process Service Fees.

32. When an appeal has been admitted, it shall be the duty of the appellant or his advocate to deposit in the office the Court fees required for the service of a notice on the respondent within seven days from the date of call by a notice affixed to the notice board.

33. The fees for the service of notice on the respondent must be paid in the form of Court fee labels which shall be affixed to a memorandum setting out clearly the name and residence of the respondent.

34. When an appellant or his advocate has failed to pay into the office, within the prescribed period, the fees required for the service of notice on the respondent, the appeal shall be posted, with an intimation that the fee has not been so paid, for the orders of the Court.

(g) Printing and Translating.

35. In all appeals in which the value of the suit exceeds Rs. 300 a 'paper book' shall be printed.

36. In all first appeals the paper book shall contain the following documents :—

(a) An index.

(b) The plaint (including any schedule appended thereto) and every written statement.

(c) The issues.

(d) The judgment and decree of the lower Court.

(e) The memorandum of appeal.

(f) Any memorandum of objections filed by the respondent.

37. In all second appeals the paper book shall contain, in addition to the documents referred to in the last preceding para, the memorandum of first appeal and the judgment and decree of the Court of first instance.

38. When an appeal is admitted and the records received, the appellant will, within fifteen days, furnish the Registrar with a list of all documents and depositions on which he intends to rely. Such documents and depositions together with the documents referred to in paras 36 and 37 will be printed at the cost of the appellant.

39. Within one month from the date of service of notice of the appeal, the respondent is required to furnish the Registrar with a list of all documents and depositions on which he intends to rely. Such documents and depositions will be printed at the cost of the respondent.

40. All vernacular documents, etc., relied on by the appellant or respondent must be translated into English before they are printed.

41. The fees for printing the paper book must be paid in advance in cash according to an estimate which will be furnished to the parties by the Registrar. Any unexpended balance will be refunded to the party by whom the fees are paid.

42. When any default is made in the payment of printing charges, the appeal shall be posted for the orders of the Court.

43. Except with the permission of the Court and on good cause shown, neither the appellant nor the respondent will be permitted at the hearing of the appeal to refer to any document or deposition which is not contained in the paper book whether such document or deposition has been filed or made on his own behalf or on behalf of the opposite party.

44. Each of the parties will be entitled to two copies of the paper book free of further charge.

45. Either party may have any number of extra copies at cost price provided that he gives the necessary notice before the book is printed.

46. The cost of translation (if any) and of printing will ordinarily be included as costs in the case, but it will be within the discretion of the appellate Court to disallow any costs which appear to have been unnecessarily incurred.

47. Where the value of the suit does not exceed Rs. 300 the record will be printed only on the special application of a party and at his own cost. In such cases the charges for printing will not be included in the schedule of costs.

48. In all appeals other than those referred to in para 35 the appellant will, within 15 days after the receipt of the records, file a list of the documents or portions of documents which he desires to have translated. A similar list will be filed by the respondent within one month from the date of service of notice of the appeal.

49. As far as possible, translation work will be done by the Court translator free of charge, but where the documents to be translated are numerous it will be within the discretion of the Registrar to get the work done by outside agency at the cost of the party interested.

(h) Return of documents.

50. All applications for the return of documents filed in any appeal or proceeding shall be disposed of by the Registrar.

Paras 43 to 46 of the Rules shall be renumbered as 51 to 54.
